

Procore <> NetSuite Connector ScaleApp

The Procore to NetSuite Connector ScaleApp is the ideal solution for construction industry (or similar) firms to simplify their business, improve project visibility, decrease manual labor, and create scalable operations.

This app allows you to enjoy all the features of Procore's construction management platform with the world's leading cloud-based ERP, NetSuite.

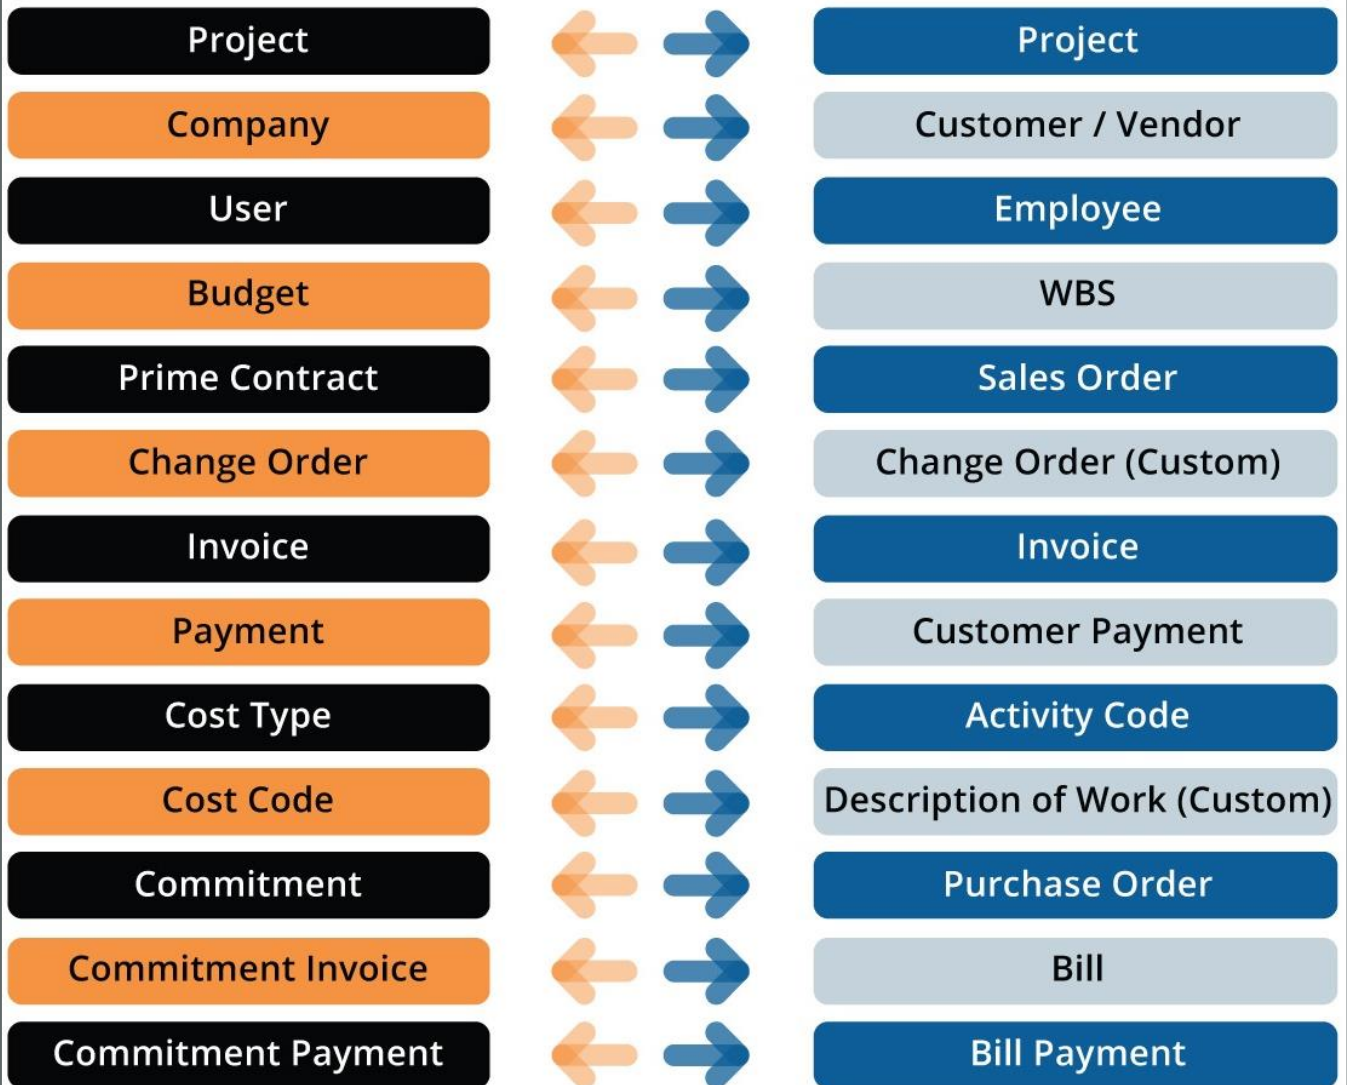

Easily scale your business with this first of its kind, best-of-breed construction solution!

Key Benefits

- Get real-time, 2-way data flows between Procore and NetSuite.
- Gain instant visibility from the project site to the back office, and everywhere in between.
- Streamline operations, reduce manual entry, and decrease errors with data automation.
- Improve communication between silos, job sites, and back-office departments.
- Monitor trends, milestones, and project health.
- Access this cloud-based solution anywhere in the world.

PROCORE®

ORACLE NETSUITE

- Create 2-way data flows using Procore's REST API and NetSuite SuiteScript.
- Manage inventory with custom item mapping based on cost codes and cost types.
- Synchronize transaction balances by integrating sales and purchases.
- Improve reporting, budgeting, and forecasting.
- Use data automation to streamline operations and decrease errors.